You are being asked to be a volunteer in a research study. The purpose of this study is to understand the participant's perception of written textual communication. The study will be conducted in two parts: an approx. 30 minute long online survey and a 30 minutes interview via video conferencing. We will not tell you everything about the study in advance. When the study is over, we will tell you everything. At that time you can decide whether to let us use your information. You have the right to then require that your information be destroyed.

Your participation in this study is gratefully acknowledged. Your information/data will be anonymized and will not be used outside of the scope of this study.

To protect your privacy, your name will not be collected or connected to the information or data that you provide.

The risks involved are no greater than those involved in daily activities.

We will comply with any applicable laws and regulations regarding confidentiality. To make sure that this research is being carried out in the proper way, the Georgia Institute of Technology IRB may review study records. The Office of Human Research Protections may also look at study records. If you have any questions about the study, you may contact Dr. Diyi Yang via email at salt.socialcomputing@gmail.com. If you have any questions about your rights as a research subject, you may contact Ms. Melanie Clark, Georgia Institute of Technology at (404) 894-6942.

If you complete the attached survey, it means that you have read -- or have had read to you -- the information contained in this letter and would like to be a volunteer in this research study.

Thank you for participating in this study.
